

Golden Hawk is a Fixed Wing MAV one of the three airframe designs being pursued by at CSIR. The two prototypes are based on conventional and the blended wing

Special Features of Golden Hawk

- High L/D with good stability
- Inherently Stable Configuration
- Highly Maneuverable
- Good climb and sink rate
- Modified E61 Airfoil with two vertical fins
- Volumetric Airfoil with cropped delta planform

Design Methodology

